

Capitol Hill Kiwanian

Nov 2008 News—Salt Lake Capitol Hill Kiwanis Club—Serving the Children of the World—Sponsor of Capitol Hill Charities—Focusing on BabyCare Cupboard

Special 4-Page Catch-Up Edition This edition of Capitol Hill Kiwanian newsletter summarizes the main events of the Salt Lake Capitol Hill Kiwanis Club from June through mid-November, 2008. For many years J. Malan Heslop served as photographer and editor of the outstanding monthly newsletter. J. served diligently and unselfishly and is dearly missed.

New CH Club Officers Sworn In Sep 25

John Brown, new District Governor

Jack Shirts, past president of CH Club

Joel Chambers, new president

Pat Peterson, continuing secretary

Scott Jenkins, new treasurer

Bill Mullens, past District Governor

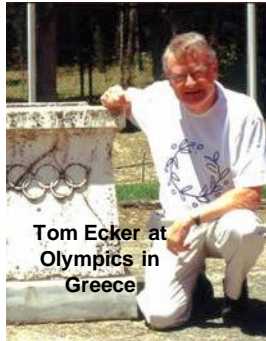

J Heslop, former newsletter editor and photographer

Dana Adams delights audience juggling before Ecker spoke at West High School scholarship fundraiser, June 21.

Nearly $1000 in scholarship money raised

Tom Ecker Olympic Event Provides Scholarship

Tom Ecker at Olympics in Greece

Alan Schulz and Steve Sorenson prepare for event

Ruth Schulz and Jed and Camille Shirts show Tom's book.

Alan Schulz (and his wife Ruth) are teaching English in Beijing, China for a year.

We thank and pay tribute to Wayne Russell, faithful club treasurer 1999-2008.

Some CH Kiwanians Are No Longer With Us

J Heslop (top right), Alan Schulz (far left), Wayne Russell (left), Dale Simons (right).

Dale Simons, passed away suddenly, August 23.

In the club he was famous for his friendship, humor, Pick-Ems (sports quiz), and his undying love of ketchup.

CHK Club Lends Lots of Service

Above: Club president, Jack Shirts, and Pat Peterson present a $1000 donation to West View Community Health Center, Sep 25.

The October semi-annual BabyCare Cupboard drive at Smith's in the Avenues, Oct 11, was a big success, bringing in 1000s of baby goods.

Members of Circle-K from U of U help collect baby care items.

Above: Eagle scouts get acknowledgement at Kiwanis Club breakfast meeting, Sep 4, for their projects for the BabyCare Cupboard.

Left: Bill, Kathy, Wayne, Carol, help at St Vincent's, Jul 10.

At right: club members enjoy their original meeting room for first time, Oct 16, after remodeling in the cafeteria complex behind the Capitol.

Summer Social Up a Creek (City Creek Canyon, that is), June 21

A well-fed group!

Bonnie looking real sporty

Bonnie and Warren Archer

M & M Kiwanis Bingo

Jed Shirts on his bassoon

Spouses join in at the annual City Creek summer social with food, games, and music. No bears or moose joined the party.

You couldn't lose at this game with M&Ms as markers to eat when done.

On Oct 16, Greg Scholes told of his experiences in Afghanistan as a male nurse in the Army.

Top-notch Speakers Educate and Entertain Club Members.

Here's a glimpse at a few of the most recent speakers.

Oct 23

Joel Chambers provides slips for "valuable" drawing to Jamie Derrick and his assistant.

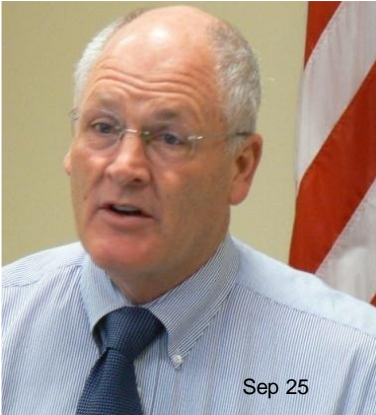

Nov 13, Jamie gave insights into handling investments during economic crises.

Below: Jim and Karen watch their son Jamie with appropriate pride.

Nov 13

Sep 25

Aug 28

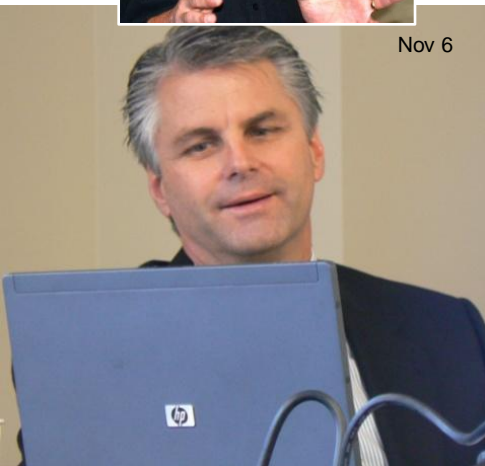

Sep 4

Jun 19

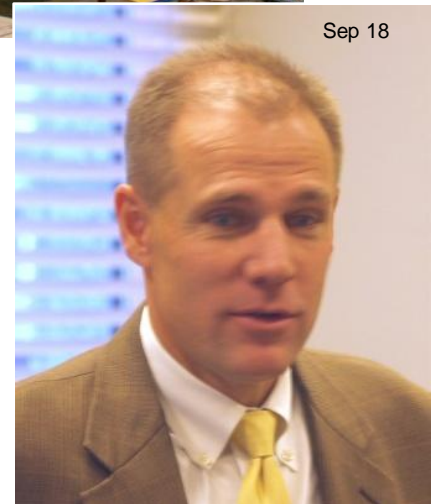

Nov 6

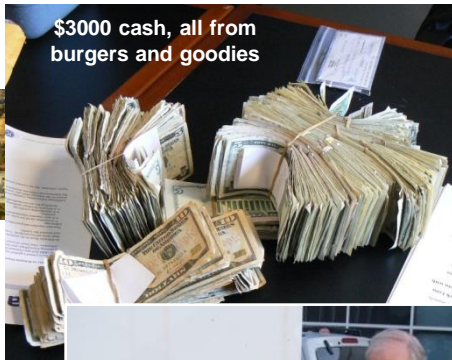

Oct 30, for a Halloween treat, Steve Sorenson showed a video of the thriller, "The Hitchhiker."

Sep 18

$3000 cash, all from burgers and goodies

West High Concessions Fundraiser Nets $3000 for Student Scholarships, Fall 2008

Karen and Jim Derrick keep the grill going on the south end of the football field.

Bill and Joel get ready for another breakfast meeting.

Set up, ring the bell, take down, every week.

West High students line up by the concessions trailer at half-time for burgers, drinks, nachos, and candy.

Lauren, Jim, and Steve work in trailer.

At left: Paul and Jean Hanks hand out goods from the booth under the stadium.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Jack Shirts has the challenge of following J Heslop as editor of the Salt Lake Capitol Hill Kiwanis Club monthly newsletter. Your suggestions are welcome.

I apologize in advance for names misspelled and dates and other information which may be incorrect or missing.

This edition has been an attempt to bring together several months' activities. Future monthly editions will be just 2 pages.

Kiwanis-sponsored Circle K at the U is growing little by little

Circle K is on Lauren's and Paul's minds.