Sep 2009 News—Salt Lake Capitol Hill Kiwanis Club—Serving the Children of the World—Sponsor of Capitol Hill Charities—Focusing on BabyCare Cupboard

BabyCare Cupboard Lives On, Blessing Babies' Lives

Pat Peterson, Rachel Fischbien, and Karen Derrick shared with CHK members on Sep 10 the positive community impact of the Salt lake BabyCare Cupboard at Crossroads Urban Center. Pat and Karen are CHK members and Rachel has been assisting at the Urban Center for nine years. Needed support for babies increases during our economic times.

Brendon Teaches Self Understanding and Collaboration

Brendon on Sep 3

Brendon Saunders, new to CHK, took the stand twice in September. Sep 3 he taught each to define in one phrase who they were and on Sep 17 he shared a film on amazing inventiveness born of team thinking.

Brendon is a teacher, businessman, and specialist in philanthropy. He brought Darrell Yager who is over Odyssey Dance Theater to propose a fund raising plan that would benefit CHK and the theater.

Karen Derrick was also recognized Sep 10 with a Kiwanis apron her heroic support at West High School football concessions. ⬆

Erin Simonsen Surprises CHK She's a Trial Lawyer

One would think that Erin Simonsen was a professional fashion model rather than a lawyer who loves to defend child victims of sexual exploitation. Erin recounted her joy at helping many such victims to a path of healing while serving as a lawyer in San Francisco before marriage and life in SLC.

Capitol Hill Shots

These shots, taken early Sep 10 demonstrate how quickly the sunrise is getting later and later in the day. See how beautiful is CHK club's early morning setting and what a legacy fills the environment. The lion, who doesn't sleep at night, guards as a sentinel.
