Oct 2009 News—Salt Lake Capitol Hill Kiwanis Club—Serving the Children of the World—Sponsor of Capitol Hill Charities—Focusing on BabyCare Cupboard

Darrell Thueson Takes the Helm, Oct 1, 2009

Jon Carpenter, Treasurer

Lauren Kadziel, Vice President

Retiring president, Joel Chambers

John Brown, Lt. Governor

New President, Darrell Thueson

New officers are installed with the help of Lt. Governor, John Brown. Not shown is Pat Peterson, who continues to serve as club secretary.

New president, Darrell Thueson, wasted no time setting forth club goals and objectives for the coming year with special emphasis on recruiting new members from local corporations. He is full of enthusiasm and drive.

Pres. Darrell Thueson honored retiring club president, Joel Chambers for his service in the 2008-2009 year by awarding him with a plaque of appreciation immediately after the new officers were sworn in. Joel now assumes the role of mentoring the new president through one more year on the board

My Favorite Teacher

When the invited speaker did not show on Oct 15, Steve Sorenson (middle) sparked responses from many members of the CHK by asking that they tell about their favorite teacher and why he or she had such a great influence on them. Those teachers would have been mighty proud.

Brimming Over

The semi-annual BabyCare drive at Smith's Market in the Avenues on Oct 9 brought big returns as can be seen in the truck below. Shoppers were remarkably generous "remembering the babies."

Over $4000 for WHS

Karen Derrick was awarded the "WTG" award ("way to go") on Oct 29 because of her extra mile efforts in earning scholarship monies by setting up and running the concessions at the West High School home football games. She is also adviser to WHS Key Club. Way to go!

Great Insights and Political Education

Other speakers in October CHK breakfast club meetings were three distinguished guests: Ron Barney, of the LDS Church Historical Department inspired members, on October 8, to keep personal journals no matter "how insignificant you think you are." LaVarr Webb, regular writer for the Deseret News, shared numerous insights, on October 15, into current state and Federal political issues and candidates. Phil Carroll, a candidate for Salt Lake City counsel, spoke of his interests and goals in the local neighborhoods.

Oct 8, CHK served at St Vincent's

Will Unga

Will Unga a New Father

Will was all smiles when he came to CHK Club on Oct 29. His wife recently gave birth to their 1st, a girl.

"Night Cap" Shots

As the winter approaches CHK's breakfast sees less and less of the light of day. The first two shots of the Salt Lake Capitol were taken in front from the south. The third was of the east side, all in the early morning hours.
