Save for School, Prevent Cancer, Care in Contracts, & KSL is Tops

Christi Scow
March 4

Christi Scow, of the Utah Education Savings Plan, taught SLCH Club members how to save toward their children's or grandchildren's education in a tax deferred way. Utah contributes only 8% of the $3 billion in savings in 155,000 accounts.

Lori Mannis
March 11

Lori Mannis is part of the Huntsman Cancer Institute and took her time to teach Kiwanis on Capitol Hill many things to be aware of concerning cancer and how the Huntsman Center is dealing with it in such a successful way for patients from many origins.

Stan Fitts,
March 18

Stan Fitts, an attorney and long-time resident of the Capitol Hill areas, gave numerous tips like writing "Payment in Full" on checks to contractors who might outwit unsuspecting home owners and get double paid for work done and put leans on their property.

Mark Weiss,
March 25

Mark Weiss, longtime employee and now Vice President of Sales of KSL TV (now Deseret Media Corporation), spoke of great leadership in the company that has helped raise it to unusual success in a very competitive market. New CEO, Mark Willis has brought separate Media entities together in a remarkable and "family" way. He also told of the great success KSL.com is having. Mr. Weiss said that no other media corporation can do what they do.

Christi Scow gave a great presentation and left helpful handouts and materials for all attendees.

Tim
Huffaker

Tim Huffaker, deserves our warmest thanks for finding great speakers. He succeeds Steve Sorenson.

↑Alan "Sure Shot" Schutz, just made 147 out of 150 foul shots in one setting! Can you believe his amazing record. He deserves CHKC's hi-five.
