

Capitol Hill Kiwanian

Jun 2010 News—Salt Lake Capitol Hill Kiwanis Club—Serving the Children of the World—Sponsor of Capitol Hill Charities—Focusing on BabyCare Cupboard

CHK Gives Bug, Hope of America Awards to Grade-Schoolers

Jim Archuleta takes time to sign bug awards for students at Washington Elementary School, June 4. Here are a couple of the graduating Kindergarten winners.

Bonnie Archer announces Hope of America award winners at Escalante Elementary School, June 7, among the graduating 6th graders. Note the rightfully proud parents, too.

Cassandra is here introduced by Karen, June 3, to CHK as one of two $1500 winners of scholarships awarded to deserving students at West High School By CHK. Cassandra is involved with a lot of community programs totalling 100s of hours of service.

BabyCare → Every month CH Kiwanians donate items to the BabyCare Cupbd.

Mark Shurtleff, Attorney General for Utah, spoke first about his recent book, "Am I Not a Man? The Dred Scott Story." It tells the true amazing story of a slave who wanted to be free. Mark then shared the role of Attorney General related to protecting children. His "Amber Alert" program has served as model for others.

Jerry Micah, who started the APA Sherpa foundation, and has scaled Mt. Everest 20 times, related his efforts to build schools and libraries in Nepal.

Larry Gelwix, the Getaway Guru (and also famous Rugby coach) shared many travel tips and anecdotes from his TV and radio shows. Of 23,000 travel agencies, his Columbus Travel is one of only 25 that has the best prices for both Princess Cruises and Norwegian 30 President's Club. There are many good deals

Sheryl Allen, State Representative, told of her teaming up with Peter Caroon (a Republican with a Democrat) for Lt Governor. She also shared her views on the need for moderate political tensions. There needs to be debate before decisions are made. She has served 16 years on the state legislature.

Tim Huf → faker consistently finds great speakers for CHK.

CHK Club Enjoyed Prominent Speakers in June

CHK Welcomed Several Guests in June including Steve Sorenson for his last visit.

W T G

Typical Breakfast Around the Table Thursday Mornings

Corey Nygaard

Sherry Sabey, Darrel's daughter

Way To Go awarded to Dean Larsen June 24 for constantly giving his time and devotion to club issues

