Stan Penfold

Feb 11: Stan Penfold, who is now serving as city councilman for the Capitol Hill area, spoke of his love for the local area and all of Utah and his opportunity to serve the community. He has also been serving since 1994 as head of the Utah Aids Association, where he has gained a greater understanding and appreciation of the impact of this life-long disease on those afflicted. Stan graduated from Ricks College in Horticulture

Alvin Rust

Feb 18: Alvin Rust said he became interested in Mormon money over 30 years ago. With the help a trusting friend he was able to start a coin shop. He first met Mark Hoffman in 1980 and in time began financing valuable early Mormon documents, so he thought. He didn't suspect any problems until the stakes got bigger and Steven Christiansen was killed by a bomb. His losses totaled $350,000.

Curtis Bennett

Feb 25: Curtis Bennett, Vice President of OC Tanner retold how the company acquired the old Hansen Planetarium, originally the SLC Library, and lavishly and painstakingly converted it into a world-class jewelry outlet at a cost of over $25,000,000. The cost goes far beyond jewelry revenues, but it is also an OC Tanner historical gift to the city. We discovered that Moyle's daughter was the architect responsible for this historic and delicate restoration.

Congratulations, Steve Sorenson, for Years of Program-Organizing Service

Steve Sorenson, recently called to serve as an LDS mission president for three years in Moscow, Russia

Darrell Thueson, CHK Club president, Feb 25, presented Steve Sorenson, early member and co-founder of CHKC with a plaque honoring him for his many years of arranging great speakers.

First built in 1905 at a cost of $120,000.

"WTG" (Way to Go award) was given to Darrell's son Troy, Feb 18.

Upcoming April 10 is CHKC's BabyCare collection day at Smiths Market in the Avenues. This is the same day as Kiwanis International Day of Service.
